

PROFILE

After graduating from IIUM with a Bachelor's degree in Economics in 1994, he embarked on his Master's degree at the International Institute of Islamic Thought and Civilization (ISTAC), a renowned centre of learning on Islamic thought founded by eminent scholar, Tan Sri Professor Dr. Syed Muhammad Naquib al-Attas. He successfully completed his M.A. in 2000. While doing his MA, in 1997, Dr. Roskiman left for Sudan to enhance his mastery of Arabic Language at the Centre of Arabic Studies, International University of Africa, Khartoum. In 2002, he was transferred to the International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM) as a lecturer. He then left for the United Kingdom and spent four years from 2004 until 2008 at the Islamic and Middle Eastern Studies, University of Edinburgh, Scotland, UK, pursuing his doctoral studies (PhD). There, he was under the supervision of renowned Orientalist in the History of Malaya, Professor Dr. William Roff (now late); as well as Professor Dr. Carol Hillenbrand and later Dr. Ayman Shihadeh. However, he obtained his doctoral degree (PhD) from the Academy of Islamic Studies, University of Malaya, Kuala Lumpur.

His M.A. thesis, which he completed under the supervision of a Turkish historian, Professor Dr. Mehmet İpşirli, was selected for publication by ISTAC-IIUM as a book and was given a title, The Administrative Ethics of Al-Ghazālī with Reference to His Naṣīhat al-Mulūk. Dr. Roskiman regularly contributes his writings to the press and magazines and radio programmes. Currently he serves as Senior Research Fellow of Centre for Syariah, Law and Politics, Institute of Islamic Understanding Malaysia (IKIM) after serving 8 years as Director of Media Centre IKIM, being responsible for IKIMfm radio station with more than 1 million listeners now.
